

"A great way to find out more about Jane Austen and discover the fabulous Georgian city of Bath."

Walking Tours of Jane Austen's Bath

Let our experienced guides take you to the places where Jane lived, walked, visited and shopped and the places made famous in her two Bath novels - 'Northanger Abbey' and 'Persuasion'. Discover also Bath's fascinating history, culture and wonderful architecture and Jane Austen's link with Horatio Nelson.

All Year - Saturdays, Sundays & Bank holidays at 11am
July / August extra tours - Friday & Saturday at 4pm
(There will be no walks at Christmas)

Purchase tickets from KC Change Visitor Centre (See map)
Adults £6 Concession £5
Assemble point outside KC Change Visitor Information Centre in Abbey Churchyard. (See map on back cover)
The tour lasts 1½ hours

"No trip to Bath is complete without a visit to The Jane Austen Centre."

Opening times of The Jane Austen Centre

Summer Opening

Monday to Sunday
9.45am to 5.30pm
Late Opening
July / August
Thursday to Saturday
until 7pm

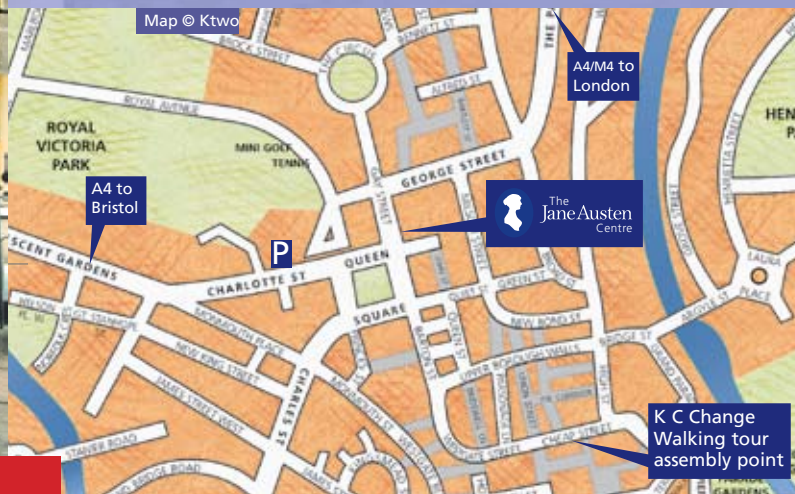

Winter Opening

8th Nov '09 - 12th Mar '10
Sunday to Friday
11am to 4.30pm
Saturdays
9.45am to 5.30pm

- Admission charged
- Groups - special itineraries available. Please contact us
- Wheelchair access to the exhibition
- Last entry 30 minutes before closing

How to get to the Jane Austen Centre

Use the map below, follow the tourist signposts, or hop off any of the sightseeing tour buses.

The Jane Austen Centre

BATH

Celebrating Bath's most famous resident

Special Offer

Print out and bring this brochure to receive 2 Cream Teas for the price of one in The Regency Tea Room.
Offer ends December 2009 - not valid Saturdays

Address:
40 Gay Street,
Bath, BA1 2NT
Telephone:
01225 443 000

Email:
contactus@janeausten.co.uk
Website:
www.janeausten.co.uk

"Wonderful, wonderful place."

Lori Pejerek USA

Permanent Exhibition • Tea Rooms • Walking Tours

"I can feel Jane all around me... A really wonderful experience." Liz Buzza, Manitoba

Bath's most famous resident

"Jane Austen is perhaps the best known and best loved of Bath's many famous residents and visitors. She paid two long visits here towards the end of the eighteenth century and from 1801 to 1806 Bath was her home.

Her intimate knowledge of the city is reflected in two of her novels, 'Northanger Abbey' and 'Persuasion', which are largely set in Bath.

The city remains much as Jane Austen knew it; the streets and buildings recalling the elegant, well-ordered world that she portrays so brilliantly in her novels.

Now the pleasure of exploring Jane Austen's Bath can be enhanced by visiting the Jane Austen Centre. Here, in a Georgian town house in the heart of the city, the visitor can find out more about the importance of Bath in Jane Austen's life and work."

Maggie Lane Author

New portrait of Jane Austen

"Jane's history brought vividly to life."

Lindsay Alger, London

About the exhibition

Your Centre Guide will bring the Jane Austen story to life. Every visit to the Centre begins with a live introductory talk.

See exhibits that explore Jane's life in Bath, her family, places of residence and Bath society. Admire elegant reproductions of Regency day and evening wear. Learn about the main entertainments of the day; dancing, socialising, gossiping, card games and tea drinking.

At the end of your visit you can relax and reflect for a moment whilst enjoying a pot of real leaf tea and a maybe some home made cake upstairs in our award winning Regency Tea Rooms.

Inside the Exhibition

Tea with Mr. Darcy?

Morning coffee, lunch, afternoon tea and snacks

Regency Tea Rooms

Set on the second floor is our elegant, award winning tearoom. We are one of only two Tea Guild Members in the whole of the Bath and Bristol region which ensures that you will enjoy high quality tea, food and service.

Taking tea and cakes in the Tea Rooms is very much part of your visit to the Jane Austen Centre. Our tea rooms have a lovely period atmosphere and very friendly staff. We look forward to your visit.

The Regency Tea Rooms

Gift Shop

After your visit you can browse in our attractive shop, which offers an unrivalled selection of Jane Austen related books, cards, stationery, and specially designed gifts - many exclusive to the Centre.

Our 'Rare and out of Print' book section is now extremely popular.

Don't want to carry it with you?

Everything we sell can be purchased from our easy to use Online Giftshop and shipped worldwide.

www.janeausten.co.uk